THE STATE AT LARGE.

NARROW ESCAPE OF A HERO FROM AWFUL DEATH.

Exciting Experiences at a Fire in Norfolk.—An ex-judge and a Wife—Bleeding—Accidental and Fatal Shooting at Waynesboro.

NORFOLK, Va., July 30.—[Special.]—The firebells rang this morning ten minutes after midnight, and gave the first general intimation of a fire which was attended with the most disastrous results. The building from which the flames started was a large frame tenement house on Church street, with two stories on the ground floor, which were occupied by the Norfolk News Company, and a hair-dressing parlor conducted by Mrs. W. J. Powers. Mrs. Powers, her ten-year-old child, and Miss Singerly, her assistant, were wrapped in a deep slumber when the fire started, and were only aroused after continual exertions of Assistant Foreman Bryan, of the Norfolk Fire Department, Assistant Chief Henry Pantill, of the Petersburg Fire Department, and a young canary named W. T. Tuinelle.

After being aroused the women, however, declined to leave the thoroughly fired building until allowed to take some money from their trunks. This delay proved dangerous for all hands, and Miss Singerly was horribly scorched around the lower limbs and arms while being forcibly carried from the burning building by Mr. Tuinelle. Mr. Tuinelle was himself severely burned, and it is feared that he will die from his injuries. Before he assisted Mrs. Powers to escape he rescued her child from the burning building by clutching out of a second story window and down on awning post.

The work of Assistant Fireman Bryan of the Norfolk Fire Department was the most chivalrous, and but for assistance from him the fatality would have been greater. Miss Singerly was arrested at Washington upon suspicion of being the instigator of Nathan Falls.—Hon. F. N. Smith died at Hillsboro.—R. O. Edwards died of pleurisy at Winston.

WASHINGTON.—It is rumored that an octogenarian Republican is likely to be appointed successor to Mr. W. H. Sizars against his confirmation, but the committee in Venezuela to which he has been nominated is insignificant. He will hardly have any influence over his recent birth speech.—The Senate of New York introduced a joint resolution demanding legislation on the duties of savings and insurance institutions at this time.

THE JUDGE AND THE ACTRESS.—A distinguished looking ex-Virginia judge, whose face was a familiar one at the last Republican State Convention, was the complainant in the Police Court this morning against a rather handsome and eloquent actress named Florence Edwards.

The actress, the charge preferred against her was that she had stolen $100 from him in the Novelty Theatre wine-room on this city on Monday night last. The actress was not present, but the court adjourned until Friday evening to give time for the trial.

What are your views on the Force bill and the proposed boycott?

The Force bill is unnecessary, uncalled for and unconstitutional. Electors of Virginia are as fair and honest as anywhere in America. It is opposed to the system of sovignty. By it we would punish our friends as well as our enemies. Non-intercourse is not to be thought of or tolerated. It makes no difference where the people live. They believe that they had better go to the South, where they will be safe.
